The United States export annually to Germany about $20,000,000 of provisions, mostly lard and oleomargerine. Germany's new tariff increases the tax on these products sixteen per cent., and on illuminating oil, of which we send Germany $7,000,000 a year, the tax has been increased from 65 cents to $1.08 per hundred weight. There is a kick over here but Germany is feeding us out of our own tariff spoon.

DEGREE ODD FELLOWS

Grand Encampment I. O. O. F., of North Carolina, in Session at Wrightsville Beach.

The Grand Encampment Independent Order of Odd Fellows of North Carolina, met in annual convention in the assembly room of the Seashore Hotel at Wrightsville Beach last night at 9 o'clock, Grand Patriarch W. H. Weatherly, of Elizabeth City, presiding over the sessions, and about fifty officers and grand representatives in attendance. The meeting last night was merely preliminary and was devoted largely to organization for the regular business sessions which will continue through Friday morning and which promise great results for the higher branch of the order in this State.

The visitors were welcomed last night in the Grand Encampment by Patriarch W. L. Smith, of Wilmington, who was very cordial in his greeting, and was responded to in much the same spirit by Grand Patriarch Weatherly and Representative G. W. Bryant, of Durham. The officers of the Grand Encampment are as follows:

Grand Patriarch—W. H. Weatherly, of Elizabeth City.

Grand High Priest—L. W. Jeannerett, of Asheville.

Grand Senior Warden—C. E. Frick, of Charlotte.

Grand Scribe—J. T. King, of Wilmington.

Grand Treasurer—Wesley Williams, of Elizabeth City.

Grand Junior Warden—F. C. Dunn, of Kinston.

Grand Representative — George Green, of Newbern.

Grand Marshall—R. W. Murray, of Greensboro.

Grand Inside Sentinel—W. R. Johnson, Windsor.

Grand Outside Sentinel—F. F. Matthews, of Newbern.

The following committees were named last night:

Credentials—B. C. Gorham, E. B. Gallop, R. H. Ramsay.

Classification and Distribution—R. W. Murray, L. Pool, J. E. Mundan.

State of Order—F. C. Dunn, W. R. Johnson, C. M. Williams.

By-Laws—L. W. Jeannerett, J. L. Stough, J. M. Rosenblatt.

Finance—George Green, L. L. Boon, J. A. Jones.

Returns—B. J. Jacobs, M. Kirschbaum, L. S. Leary.

Mileage and Per Diem—G. W. Bryant, M. W. Jacobi, R. H. Ramsay.

Memoirs—B. H. Wodell, Wesley Williams, E. F. Sawyer.

Miscellaneous Affairs—L. Pool, C. W. Pace, D. Gaster.

The reports of grand officers were received and other routine business disposed of after which the visitors adjourned to enjoy the ocean breezes. The daily sessions will be held at 9 A. M. and 3 P. M. To-night at the Seashore Hotel a bowling tournament and informal reception will be given the representatives, many of whom are accompanied by lady members of their families. Members of Campbell Encampment, of Wilmington, and members of their families are invited to be present and assist in the entertainment of the guests. Refreshments will be served and prizes will be offered in the bowling contest.

LOCAL DOTS.

—Cases in the police court yesterday were trifling. Boisey Mitchell, colored, was fined $10 and costs for disorderly conduct.

—The Standard Oil tug Astral, Capt. T. C. Johnson, arrived yesterday from Philadelphia towing oil barges 81 and 58. The first named was brought up from Southport with a supply of oil products for the branch of the company in this city and No. 58 will be taken on to Charleston and Savannah.

—The following building permits have been applied for: Two-story, frame, tin-roof dwelling for Emily Adderson, on Seventh, between Walnut and Red Cross streets. J. J. Benton and T. E. Lupo, contractors, two-story building (part brick and part wood) on northwest corner of Fourth and Campbell street, for Mr. Oscar Pearsall.

—News and Observer: "A big excursion, first class all through, is to be run by the Seaboard Air Line to Wilmington on Tuesday the 22nd of August, the fare to be $2.25 for the round trip. The train will leave Raleigh at 8 A. M., on the 22nd and returning will leave Wilmington at 8 P. M. on the night of the 23rd. The trip will be a delightful one."

—If anybody believes that the Wilmington yellow fever quarantine is lax they should ask Mr. L. W. Jeannerette, of Asheville, who is attending the Grand Encampment of Odd Fellows at the beach, to relate his experience with the officers when he came down on the train yesterday. If Wilmington never gets yellow fever until it is brought in by a passenger under the present quarantine, Mr. Jeannerette says the population may rest easy.

—Justice Bornemann yesterday received his re-appointment as a notary public for a term of two years. Upon the occasion of Gov. Glenn's recent visit to Wrightsville Justice Bornemann spoke to the Governor of the expiration of his commission as a notary and the Governor said it would give him pleasure to reappoint the Justice. The new commission came yesterday and is already framed and suspended from the walls of Justice Bornemann's court room.

HELD WITHOUT BOND

Investigation of Killing of Alice Owens By Jury of Inquest Yesterday

STORY OF EYE WITNESSES

Evidence of Young Claude Fowler Particularly Damaging—An Implied Threat Said to Have Preceded Shooting.

A jury of inquest composed of Dr. Thos. B. Carroll, chairman; B. F. King, secretary, T. W. Wood, W. L. Burkheimer, C. W. Hewlette and F. S. Shepard, empanelled by Dr. C. D. Bell, the coroner of the county, at the City Hall yesterday morning, after a full investigation into the circumstances of the death of Alice Owens, the young woman of Wilmington's half world who was shot to death in the house of Sadie Garrett, on Eighth street, Tuesday night, returned a verdict as follows.

"We the undersigned coroner's jury, being duly summoned and sworn by C. D. Bell, coroner of New Hanover county, beg to report after hearing the evidence of the witnesses, we find that the said Alice Owens came to her death by a gun shot wound, the shot having been fired by T. C. Lamb."

Young Lamb was at once committed to jail by Coroner Bell without bond to await trial at the September term of Superior Court. The jury of inquest assembled at 10 o'clock and at once proceeded to the house of Sadie Garrett where the body was viewed. Returning to the City Hall, the jury convened for the purpose of hearing testimony. Only the two eye witnesses of the tragedy, Claude Fowler and Louise Massey, were examined though Sadie Garrett, keeper of the house, and Cullen Pridgen, a young man who ran for the police after the tragedy, were recognized to appear and testify at the trial in the Superior Court. Foreman Carroll, of the jury, visited the prisoner in his cell at the station house and asked him if he wanted to make a statement to the jury. He said no; that it was an accident and nothing could be gained by his going over the details again. The young man was not represented by counsel, but it is understood that his friends are arranging to employ an attorney for the trial in the higher court. The signed statements of the eye witnesses of the shooting as taken at the inquest are as follows:

Louise Massey: "Last night between 11 and 12 o'clock, C. L. Fowler, Tom Lamb, Alice Owens and myself were all sitting in a room on Eighth street, between Church and Castle, talking. Tom Lamb had been at the house off and on for several days. While we were all in the room talking, Tom said 'it is eleven minutes to 12 o'clock,' and immediately I heard a shot, the light went out and I went at once to 'phone for a doctor. Didn't see the pistol and couldn't swear who fired the shot."

C. L. Fowler: "Last night at little before 11 o'clock, I was on my way home and met Tom Lamb at Seventh and Castle streets. We both spoke and he says: 'Com here, I have something I want to tell you. Claude I hate to tell you what I am going to, but that woman is treating me dirty and I am going to fix her; going to do it to-night." He went to Capps', at Sixth and Castle, and had two drinks. I drank beer and he drank whiskey. We then went up to Sadie Garrett's, on Eighth between Church and Castle, at his solicitation. Alice Owens met us at the door and invited us in her room. We three and Louise Massey all went in the room. Tom pulled a bottle of whiskey and asked us all to have a drink. Alice took bottle and says to Lamb, 'You have had enough' and emptied the whiskey in a slop jar. Tom then asked Louise to get him a bottle of beer, which she did. We all took a sip and handed him the balance, which was very little. He looked at the clock and said, "It's eleven minutes to 12 o'clock," drank what was in the bottle and immediately drew a pistol from his right hip pocket, aimed at Alice Owens and fired. The light flashed out, Alice fell to the floor and I grabbed Tom. The pistol fell out of his hand. He says 'Kill me, Claude, kill me!' He seemed to be pretty drunk, but talked sensible and I judged that he knew what he was doing. I went out after the police."

The evidence of young Fowler was considered particularly damaging to the prisoner and it was expressed as the opinion of many, who heard his story, that the only hope for the young defendant lay in the power of his counsel to impeach the testimony.

Funeral of the Victim.

The funeral of the young woman was conducted at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon from the house in which she had lived by the Rev. Harold Thomas, minister in charge of the Chapel of the Good Shepherd, Sixth and Queen streets. The interment was in Bellevue cemetery.

YACHT RACE TO-MORROW.

Interesting Event at Wrightsville Beach To-morrow Afternoon.

The yacht race to be sailed tomorrow over the course of the Carolina Yacht Club, at Wrightsville Beach, is attracting much attention and causing much speculation as to the winners. The start wil be at 3:30 P. M. and the race will be under the authority of the Regatta Committee, composed of Messrs. R. G. Rankin, Jr., chairman; Milton Calder and A. B. Skelding. The entries will be the "Puzzle," Capt. J. VanB. Metts; "Buttinsky," Capt. H. J. McMillan; "Kayembee," Capt. M. S. Willard, and the "Don Julian," Capt. W. L. Parsley. There will be no prizes but the honors contested for will be sufficient to make each of the fleet captains do his best. A large crowd will doubtless be present to witness the race.

PRETTY WEDDING AT CURRIE.

Mr. Guy R. Davis Claimed Miss Lucas at Fair Bride Yesterday.

Mr. Guy Randolph Davis and bride, nee Miss Mary M. Lucas, arrived last evening from Currie, N. C., and went to Wrightsville Beach where they will spend their honeymoon. The groom is a popular young employe in the engineering department of the Atlantic Coast Line in this city and the bride is the attractive and accomplished young daughter of Dr. George F. Lucas, a leading physician and citizen of Pender county. They were married yesterday at high noon at the home of Dr. Lucas, at Currie, and the ceremony is described as beautiful for its simplicity, conforming to the wishes of both the bride and groom, and a happy one because of the congeniality of the happy young couple it joined as man and wife in the solemn obligations for life.

The parlors of the home were tastefully decorated with ferns, bamboo and flowers. The ceremony was performed at an improvised altar, the Rev. A. L. McCaskill, pastor of the Ivanhoe group of Presbyterian churches, officiating. There were no attendants but the pretty service was witnessed by a host of relatives and admiring friends. The bride wore a lovely gown of white silk and carried a bouquet of white roses. After a sumptuous wedding repast, Mr. and Mrs. Davis come on the Fayetteville train to Wilmington and are now spending a delightful season at Wrightsville.

PRIVATE WATER SUPPLY.

Residents on "St. James' Block" Planning Many Improvements.

The twenty-odd property owners, who recently purchased lots from Mr. Thos. P. Bagley, on what is known as "St. James' Block," met last night in the parlors of The Orton and unanimously decided to have driven in the centre of the block a fine artesian well and to erect a tank and all other machinery for a pure water supply for the entire block. It is estimated that the water plant will cost in the neighborhood of $750 and the service will be given to all residents at first cost. An automatic, electric pump will be installed and it will be looked after by some competent resident on the block.

Another decided improvement that will be noted in the building of the residences on the property will be the uniformity of the distance of each dwelling from the sidewalk. The minimum cost of a residence on the lot will not be less than $1,750. The residence of Mr. S. S. Drew, corner of Eighth and Ann street, is now nearly completed and the work of building the others will commence in a few days. Work on the water plant will begin within four to six weeks.

It is also the purpose of residents on the "square" to lay a concrete sidewalk around the entire property and in the Fall to plant shade trees about the yards and along the walks, all to be uniform and with the prettiest effect.

SECOND STREET PROPERTY.

Messrs. Chapman Brothers Purchased Valuable Business Site.

Messrs. James W. and John P. Chapman have purchased from Mrs. E. J. Walker, for $3,500, the property on east side of Second street, 99 feet north of Market street, fronting 33 feet on Second street and running back into the block 88 feet. The frame buildings now on the lot are occupied by the Wilmington Pressing Club and a colored barber shop. It is the purpose of the new purchasers to ultimately erect on the block a two-tsory brick building. The place will be used by the Messrs. Chapman and other parties interested as paint works, a manufacturing and contracting business being carried on. The sale of the property was through the real estate agency of Messrs. J. G. Wright & Son. The purchasers were represented by A. J. Marshall, Esq.

Compliment to Mr. Alderman.

The Baraca Class of the First Baptist church last night at Wrightsville Sound gave a delightful launch party from the Hotel Tarrymoore in compliment to Mr. Thomas W. Alderman, city ticket agent of the Seaboard Air Line, who resigned a few days ago and will leave to-lay for a trip to New York and other points in the North, before going to his home in Greensboro, N. C. There were about 30 young men and young ladies in the party, and the evening was greatly enjoyed. Mr. Alderman was one of the founders of the Class and a most active worker in its ranks after its formation. His departure from the city is keenly regretted by his friends generally and the Baraca Class particularly.

An Obstreperous Stranger.

A well-dressed stranger, presumably a travelling man and evidently much under the influence of liquor, was put off the last car from the beach at Nolan's siding last night at 12 o'clock because he peremptorily refused to pay his fare. A man supposed to be the same person, was real naughty on the A. & Y. train last night on account of the quarantine regulations and he was brought to Wilmington under escort of Quarantine Officer E. L. Smith. At the station he was met by Chief Quarantine Officer Green and was sent up to the City Hall until he could give an account of himself and get some one to vouch for him.

Excursion To-Day.

The Wilmington Central Labor Union will run an excursion to Carolina Beach to-day for the benefit of the Labor Day Celebration. All union members and friends of labor are cordially invited to take the trip and are assured a pleasant day at the seashore. There will be four trips of the steamer during the day and there will be music and dancing afternoon and night. Fare for the round trip 25 cents.

SUNDAY BLUE LAWS

Upon Complaint of Cigar Dealer Mayor Says Sabbath Selling Must Stop

ORDER ISSUED YESTERDAY

Soda Water, Ice Cream, Tobaccos and All Else Tabooed Except Medicine and Ice—Druggists May Close Their Stores.

Unless the Board of Aldermen meets in the meantime and repeals the clause in the general odrinance—which is not at all improbable the Aldermen will do—Wilmington will on next Sunday pass under a blue law regime similar to that under which several towns and cities up the State have been chafing for some months. Nobody had any idea that the wave of total abstinence from soda water and tobacco on the Sabbath would reach Wilmington in the next hundred years, but unless something is done and done quickly Sunday sales in the future will be restricted entirely to ice and medicines.

Elsewhere in to-day's paper will be found an official advertisement from Mayor Waddell stating that complaint having been made to him by a cigar dealer that drug stores sell cigars on Sunday to the injury of his business, in the future the ordinance prohibiting the sale of any goods on Sundays, except medicine and ice, will be strictly enforced. No cigars, soda water, ice cream or any other article, except medicine or ice, can be sold at a drug store or anywhere else on Sunday under penalty of $25 fine, the notice by the Mayor concludes.

It is understood that the complaint was made to the Mayor by Mr. W. R. Morrison, who is half owner of the cigar and tobacco business, conducted by himself and Mr. H. J. Gerken, on Market street. It is learned that Mr. Morrison approached Chief of Police Williams a few days ago and asked why he should not be allowed to sell cigars from his place of business as well as the druggists who sold them on Sunday. The chief replied that he could not open his store unless he wanted to be arrested, which would surely result. Mr. Morrison then took up the matter with the Mayor and the order issued yesterday is the result. Mr. Gerken, partner of Mr. Morrison, disclaims any connection with the complaint to the Mayor but does not hesitate say that the discrimination is hurtful to their business.

The druggists say the restriction of their Sunday sales to ice and medicines only will mean that it will not pay them to keep open Sunday at all and a meeting to consider closing up altogether is being considered, unless the ordinance is repealed. Such action would work a hardship upon the public at large, but at the same time the druggists could not be expected to keep their stores open at a loss. The ordinance in question is Section 35 of Article X, of the ordinances, as follows:

"Sec. 35. Any person or persons who shall open his store or place of business on a Sunday for the purpose of selling or disposing of, or offering for sale any goods, wares or merchandise, or any article; or any person, who shall sell or dispose of any goods, wares or merchandise, or any article, on a Sunday, shall be fined twenty-five ($25) dollars. Provided, that nothing in this Ordinance shall refer to druggists selling medicines, or ice dealers selling ice in the City of Wilmington."

Chief Williams when seen yesterday afternoon said that the ordinance would certainly be enforced if there are officers enough on the police force to enforce it. He had no criticism to make of the law one way or another, but as long as it is on the books, he said, it must be carried out as far as is in the power of the police.

MARRIED LAST NIGHT.

Prominent Greenville Man Weds Mrs. Houston, Massage Specialist.

Last night at the residence of Mrs. S. C. Morton, No. 114 South Third street, where the bride has made her home since coming to Wilmington early in the Summer, Mrs. Maude Houston, a massage specialist of New Orleans, and Mr. C. W. Harvey, a prominent tobacconist of Greenville, N. C., were happily united in marriage in the presence of a few friends, the Rev. J. M. Wells, D. D., pastor of the First Presbyterian church officiating. The ceremony is described as having been a very pretty one indeed. After Mr. and Mrs. Harvey had received the congratulations of those in attendance upon the pretty nuptial event, they took their departure on the 10:30 P. M. car to the beach and will spend their honeymoon at the Seashore Hotel, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. H. McClellan, of Greenville, N. C., who came last evening with the groom to attend the wedding, and Miss E. E. Blankenship, of New Orleans, a sister of the bride, who has been in Wilmington and at the beach all Summer.

Mr. Harvey met the bride at Greenville some months ago and a strong attachment then ripened into love and affection. It was impracticable for the bride to return home for the wedding ceremony, so it was performed here.

Suburban Traffic Delayed.

On account of the grounding of the trolley circuit through a brake wheel of a freight car pushed by the Atlantic Coast Line into a siding at the box factory, in the northeast section of the city, traffic on the suburban line of the Consolidated Company was practically tied up for three hours last night, between about 5 and 8 o'clock. As soon as the trouble was located, however, the cars went to moving again.

AUDIT AND FINANCE BOARD

Special Meeting Yesterday Afternoon —Quarantine Regulations Approved—To Publish Statements.

A special meeting of the City Board of Audit and Finance was held yesterday afternoon; present, Acting Chairman C. W. Yates and Messrs. Jesse Wilder and J. A. Orrell. The business transacted was not of special importance beyond the fact that the action of the Board of Health in the measures adopted for the prevention of yellow fever was heartily sustained, carrying with it the understanding that all reasonable bills for the extra expense incident thereto, would be approved.

It was regretted that the bids were so widely at variance as to specifications for the repair of the machinery at the city rock quarry, that no contract could be awarded for that work and the matter goes over until the next regular meeting next Tuesday afternoon. In the meantime the committee is requested to get all bidders to submit a bid upon the same specifications so that there will be no misunderstanding when an award is made.

Tax of $10 imposed by the Board of Aldermen upon wholesale wine dealers and manufacturers was concurred in. The tax of $5 on dealers in graphophones and like instruments was referred back to the Aldermen with the suggestion that the amount is out of proportion to the tax of $2.50 per month on bicycle dealers and such and that the tax should be made to apply to dealers in graphophones and the like exclusively. The tax of $5 per month on warehouses was also referred back with the suggestion that the rate is rather low and in any event warehouses that pay another license should not be taxed.

The contract with Mr. C. H. Dock for 20,000 tons of rock at $1.30 per ton was approved with the proviso that only 10,000 tons be required to be taken during the present fiscal year.

The award of the contract to Messrs. D. and T. Quinlivan for shoeing the horses of the Fire Department was concurred in.

The Board approved the action of the Aldermen providing that the firemen and policemen shall be paid twice a month instead of indiscriminately as heretofore.

It was ordered that in the future the clerk have prepared and published quarterly a statement of the warrants paid by the city in the same manner as annual reports of the county disbursements.

Coupons to the amount of $7,485 due July 1st and paid, were burned by the Board.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

—Mr. Frank Herbst is at Narragansett Bay, R. I., to spend some time.

—Mr. George Rountree and family are at Lenox, Mass., for the remainder of the Summer.

—Mr. J. D. Hanks, formerly of Wilmington, now of Raleigh, is here to spend a few days.

—Mr. W. R. Walker, of Currie, N. C., and Mr. Owen Martindale, of Federal Point, were pleasant callers at the Star office yesterday.

—Mr. P. S. Cooper, of Mullins, S. C., is in the city to attend the funeral services of the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Cooper this afternoon.

—Miss Carrie Lee McLean returned yesterday from Gastonia, where she accompanied Mrs. T. A. Norment, Jr., to attend the funeral of her father, Capt. J. D. Moore, Miss McLean is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Jas. H. Taylor, Jr.

—Mr. B. C. Gorham, Miss Lucile Gorham and Mr. D. Gaster, of Fayetteville; Mrs. V. V. Richardson, Miss Ett Richardson, of Whiteville; Misses Mabel Muse, of Cameron and Flora Aycock, of Whiteville; Mr. R. M. Prior and wife and Mr. T. C. Wooten and wife, of Fayetteville; M. M. Capps and wife, of Jacksonville, N. C.; Mrs. Q. K. Nimocks and Miss Isabel Nimocks, of Fayetteville, were guests at the Seashore Hotel Yesterday.

About That Steam Yacht.

The wild reports about the steam yacht that came into Wrightsville having come from New Orleans were set at rest yesterday by a personal visit by the Mayor and Chief of Police, who saw the clearance papers of the yacht. She left Philadelphia as her papers, signed by the Collector of Customs and naval officers at that port show, on the 29th of July, and got as far South as Frying Pan Shoals, off the Cape Fear, when her machinery broke down and she drifted back and entered Wrightsville inlet by the help of persons on the beach. She has been in no infected district and is not a possible source of yellow fever infection, but the Mayor wanted to be certain and finally satisfied himself that there was no danger.

A Domestic Tragedy.

Sallie Pigford, colored, applied to Justice Bornemann yesterday for a warrant for her husband, George Pigford, whom she accused of beating her fearfully. Deputy Sheriff J. M. Wade was quickly dispatched with a warrant for the wife-beater, but instead of finding him at home, the officer found him at the hospital where he was having several stitches taken in a wound in the back of his head. When brought into court, Pigford proved to the satisfaction of the magistrate that he was the aggrieved party, and was let off with the costs, whereupon he had his wife indicted for striking him in the head with a billet of wood. She was bound to the Superior Court and, in default of bond, went to jail.

Mr. and Mrs. Cooper Bereaved.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Cooper tender sincere sympathy to them in the death of their infant son, Frank Stewart, aged ten months, which occurred yesterday morning at 8 o'clock at the family residence, No. 207 North Fifth street. The funeral will be conducted from the family home at 4 o'clock this afternoon and the remains will be laid to rest in beautiful Oakdale cemetery.

PROOF OF THE PUDDING!
What a Star Business Local Did.
South Washington, N. C., July 18, 1905.
We recently advertised in the Business Locals department of The Morning Star for "an experienced man to take charge of logging woods," etc.
We have thus far received 21 responses to the advertisement, and they are still coming.
We have secured the man we needed; and it is hardly necessary for us to add that The Morning Star has proved its claim to being a first-class advertising medium.

GAME LAW CONTROVERSY.

Effort to Smoke Martins Out of Grove at Wrightsville.

Although a considerable number of the martins infesting the grove at Wrightsville Sound were shot late Tuesday evening after the action of the County Sanitary Board, granting that permission, nevertheless when the pronunciamento of Game Warden Freeman and Audubon Society Attorney B. G. Empie reached there through the medium of a printed account in the Star, the shooting immediately ceased and Capt. Hanby and cottagers there were forced to adopt other methods of ridding themselves of the pests. Smoking the birds out of the thick foliage of the trees by means of smothered fires undeneath was tried, but little success rewarded the effort. County Game Warden Freeman, at whose suggestion the smoking process was tried, was apepaled to upon failure of the experiment, and he went down yesterday afternoon to make another trial of the same method. He was of the opinion that the fires had not been made large enough. He said he had no alternative in the matter and regretted that the residents on the Sound were put to so much trouble with the birds. He said he would make no further indictments personally, but would report the matter to the solicitor at the next term of court, and that official could take what action he deemed proper.

GOOD ROADS AS GOOD TRADE BUILDERS.

The Durham Herald in discussing good roads a few days ago said this:

"It will be a long time before Orange, Person and Chatham counties can engage in good road building and if this county will build roads touching these counties the town would naturally get much trade that does not now come here, and we take it that this is what the town wants."

There is enough reason in the above to make Durham take action and certainly enough to stir up Orange, Person and Chatham to their neglected opportunities. The Herald was looking out for the advantage of its own county but unintentionally said something which should put those other counties on their metal. The idea suggested is that as those countries will not help themselves by building roads, Durham county should run a few highways in their direction and sap their trade.

The Raleigh Post makes this comment upon what the Durham Herald says:

"As the Herald did not mention Granville and Wake counties, both of which are about as near the city of Durham as either Chatham or Orange and nearer than Person, we assume that the good roads work in Granville and Wake is being recognized. However, the idea we wish to emphasize here is that good roads are important factors in trade building. In fact they are indispensable. In the old days when little or no attention was paid to road building and they were all bad, the course of trade from the farms was largely determined by distance. Now the enterprising farmer will drive fifteen to twenty miles over graded roads rather than go half the distance over steep hills, deep ruts and roots and rocks, because he can carry twice as much with less strain to horses and wagon and make the trip just as quick.

"The Herald is right. If Durham county will extend her good roads to the borders of the county large volumes of trade that now go elsewhere will find their way to Durham. Other counties will do well to stick a pin here. Wake may well afford to wake up and get busy in the matter of road building and road extension. Already much has been accomplished, but it is not all done yet. In fact good road building is yet in its infancy in this county, and the business interests, which include the farm industry, cannot afford to let the work stop."

There is enough in what our two contemporaries say to furnish the strongest incentive to every county to build good roads in order to to take care of their own trade and prevent it from going to a more enterprising neighbor.

DEATH OF EDITOR SAPP.

The death of Charles Pinkney Sapp, editor of the Norfolk Virginian-Pilot, is a distinct loss to journalism. He was a brilliant writer and there was about his editorials a classic finish that gave tone to his side of our esteemed Norfolk contemporary. He was a man of honest convictions and by character was well qualified to give earnestness to his writing.

Mr. Sapp was born near Concord, N. C., and was only 33 years of age. He graduated from Wake Forest College in 1896 and for a while taught school in North Carolina and Tennessee. His first journalistic work was as editor of the Greensboro, N. C., Evening Telegram and from that paper he went to the Raleigh News and Observer as associate editor with Editor Josephus Daniels. He was engaged by the Norfolk Virginian-Pilot in March, 1900, and in April of that year became editor-in-chief of that paper as successor to Col. William C. Elam, one of Virginia's most distinguished editors.

Mr. Sapp's rise in journalism was rapid. He was a forceful and elegant writer, and it was this that made him chief editor of one of the South's leading newspapers. We are pained that a man of such talents and such vast promise of usefulness should be counted among the dead so early in life.

BUCKHORN FALLS BEING HANESSED.

Keep your eye on Fayetteville as a manufacturing centre with electric power with which to move machinery. We know of no city in North Carolina so fortunately situated as to available water-power for electrical development, and a healthful and delightful climate, a fertile adjacent region and a splendid people swell the advantages of that thriving upper Cape Fear city.

We are reminded of this because of the announcement that the machinery is now being installed at the plant of the Cape Fear Electric Power Company, at Buckhorn Falls, on Cape Fear river, a few miles from the city. It is expected that by the early fall the plant will be in operation and furnishing electric power to the cotton and silk mills and other manufacturing industries of Fayetteville. Already a thriving manufacturing centre, Fayetteville is bound to develop by the mere force of circumstances, without reference to the efforts of the live and enterprising men who are doing so much for that specially favored locality.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—Governor Blanchard and Governor Vardaman might be in better mood for a discussion of theid differences if they were to follow the example of the governors of the Carolinas.—Washington Post.

—So many subjects of His Majesty Edward VII fear that America's future is threatened by China and Japan, the yellow peril, that there comes an irresistable temptation to remind them that the United Sates has managed to increase some 70,000,000 in population in the last century without an Oriental market. We can probably play along.—Seattle Post-Intelligncer.

—Vice President Fairbanks was a consistent success at the "Soo' celebration until his stomach gave out. Then he became a flat failure—flat on his back, indeed. He must have a care. No man without a good stomach has become President of the United States. A President needs the digestion of an anaconda.—Springfield Republic.

—Tillman may not be able to carry out his program for salvation of the dispensary, but there can be no doubt of his power to disappoint the expectations of one wing of the anti-dispensary coalition. The fight upon the dispensary is being conducted by two factions, whose aims, purposes and principles are as wide apart as the poles. The prohibitionists and those who favor the sale of liquor by private individuals have absolutely nothing in common except that the dispensary is equally in the way of both of them.—Columbia Record.

—To what depths has the State of South Carolina descended since she engaged in the liquor business through her famous dispensary law! She not only sells mean liquor and by statute and constabulary force requires her citizens to drink it, but now she is accused of stealing a brand belonging to a private individual. A firm in North Carolina which makes a very widely popular brand of corn whiskey is suing South Carolina for $50,000 damages. The allegation is that the State counterfeited the brand, name and trademark, and not only did that but under the North Carolina firm's label sold liquor of such infamously mean quality as to damage its prestige and business seriously.—Richmond News Leader.

—A few days ago a charter was granted to the Blue Ridge Consolidated Mining Company, at Morganton, the authorized capital being $1,000,000. Almost every day charters are issued to new companies all over the State. This particular case is a great thing for the State and especially Burke county, being one of the largest, if not the largest, companies of the kind in the State. North Carolina has more than he share of minerals and precious stones. The rubbies found in this State are of the finest grade in the world. Only recently has gold mining in this State been carried to any extent, and yet her supply grows more phenominally evident every day. By some chance a nugget is found and investigation leads to the discovery of a rich vein. We have the resources at hand to be one of the wealthiest States in the union, and the revival of industry on every hand bids fair to make us such in a very few years.—Charlotte News.

TWINKLINGS.

—Von Blumer (roaring)—Who told you to put this paper on the wall? Decorator—Your wife, sir, Von Blumer—Pretty, isn't it?

—A Wisconsin woman describes her missing husband as "an active Elk." He's probably herding with the dears.—Washington Post.

—She—Why do you suppose they have all the telephone wires so high in the air? He—Oh, that is so they can keep up the conversation, I suppose.

—"I lost my identity for two whole weeks this summer." "How did it happen?" "Spent my vacation among my wife's relations, where I was simply known as Anna's husband."—Men and Women.

—Nobody.—Nordy—Even optimism may be made a nuisance. Butts—As to how? "Who wants to hear a woman singing, 'Let a Little Sunshine In,' with the thermometer standing at 97 in the shade?"—Louisville Courier-Journal.

—One Exception.—"No," declared Mr. Nagget, "there never was a woman on earth who could refrain from turning around to rubber at some other woman's clothes." "No?" replied his wife, sweetly. "Didn't you ever hear of Eve?"—Philadelphia Press.

—She—You are depressed. I didn't know you cared so much for your uncle. He—I didn't; but I was the means of keeping him in an insane asylum the last year of his life, and now that he has left me all his money I've got to prove that he was of sound mind.—Tit Bits.

—Proof.—The Kentuckian—I never saw a man who thinks more of his wife than Majah Blugrass. The New-Yorker—Loves her some, eh? The Kentuckian—Simply worships her! You may believe me or not, but I know for a fact that he named his best horse after her!—Puck.

—His Idea of Good Fare.—"What is this leathery stuff," the diner asked, when the second course of the dinner was served. "That is a filet of sole, sir," replied the waiter. "Take it away," said the diner, after attacking it with his fork, "and see if you can't get me a nice tender piece of the upper, with the buttons removed."

Fiendish Suffering

is often caused by sores, ulcers and cancers, that eat away your skin. Wm. Bedell, of Flat Rock, Mich., says: "I have used Bucklen's Arnica Salve, for Ulcers, Sores and Cancers. It is the best healing dressing I ever found." Soothes and heals cuts, burns and scalds. 25c at R. R. Bellamy's drug store; guaranteed. **

COTTON MARKETS.

New York, August 9.—After early steadiness, the cotton market turned easier and just about lost the gains of the previous day. The opening was steady at an advance of 3 to 5 points in response to higher cables and continued bull support, while wire houses with Southern connections also had buying orders on reports of firm interior holders. The weather map was considered very favorable, however, with good rains in the southwest, and the day's receipts showed an increasing new crop movement, promoting considerable selling for both accounts, which, after a slight advance from the opening figures, caused a partial reaction followed by a second bulge carrying October to 10.34 or about 9 to 10 points net higher on the active months. But at the advance bull support was partially withdrawn, and during the middle-session the market acted nervous and unsettled with the bears becoming more aggressive and before the close, liquidation aided in promoting weakness. The final tone was steady but prices were within a couple of points of the lowest at a net decline of 8 to 10 points. Sales were estimated at 400,000 bales. Southern spot markets were unchanged to 1-8c higher.

BOMBARDMENT BY RUSSIANS.

Village In Crete Destroyed by Gunboat.

By Cable to The Morning Star.

Canea, Grete, August 8.—The Russian gunboat Kharabry has bombarded and destroyed Castelli (on the North coast of the Island of Crete, about 18 miles East of Retimo) because the insurgents there opposed the leading the landing of a Russian force to take over the suctom house. A boat party which was sent ashore from the Kharabry was repulsed, whereupon the Russian command after warning the insurgents to remove the women and children, opened fire. The insurgents returned the fire with small arms wounding two Russians. The bombardment continued until the village hoisted the white flags.

—The strike of bread bakers in Hebrew quarters in New York, spread yesterday to Brooklyn, where a union of 180 bakers quit work and marched together to join the main body of strikers then holding a mass-meeting in Manhattan. President Kurtz, of the bankers organization, says that practically every union baker in the city is now on the strike. In soncequence the price of Kosher bread, which had already risen from 4 and 5 cents a loaf to 8 and 10 cents, if again advancing, this time about 2 cents a loaf.

Peculiar Disappearance.

J. D. Runyan, of Butlerville, O., laid the peculiar disappearance of his painful symptoms, of indigestion and biliousness, to Dr. King's New Life Pills. He says: "They are a perfect remedy, for dizziness, sour stomach, headache, constipation, etc." Guaranteed at R. R. Bellamy's drug store, price 25c. **

HAIR TELLS CHARACTER.

Color of Hair Said to Indicate a Person's Temperament.

Many people believe that blonde, or light hair denotes affection and dark hair constancy. A person without hair is not devoid of character; far from it. The disposition of the average baldheaded man is to show such solicitude for the welfare of others, that he neglects himself. A germ causes baldness. Prof. Sabouraud, of Paris, France, inoculated a rabbit with Dandruff germs, causing it to become totally bald in five weeks' time. To rid the scalp of these dangerous germs it is necessary to apply Newbro's Herpicide.

"Destroy the cause—you remove the effect."

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c to Depot for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

A Touching Story

is the saving from death, of the baby girl of Geo. A. Eyler, Cumberland, Md. He writes: "At the age of 11 months, our little girl was in declining health, with serious Throat Trouble, and two physicians gave her up. We were almost in despair, when we resolved to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. The first bottle gave relief; after taking four bottles she was cured, and is now in perfect health." Never fails to relieve and cure a cough or cold. At R. R. SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

—Messrs. J. B. Beal & Son have purchased land at Gastonia and will at once install a plant to manufacture wood fibre plaster.

—On Monday night at Jarvisburg, Currituck county, Hezekiah Baun, a 12-year-old boy, was mistaken for a burglar and was shot and killed by Mr. Hubbard Forbes, at whose house the boy made his home.

—The Wrendall Oil Mill Company, of Battleboro, with $30,000 authorized and $13,500 subscribed capital stock, was chartered by the Secretary of State, at Raleigh, on Tuesday. The incorporators are: W. S. Wilkinson, Rocky Mount; J. L. Wimberly, Jr., Tarboro; E. S. Battle, Battleboro; R. H. Speight, Whitakers, and others.

—Raleigh Post: Mr. B. Frank Mebane, the well-know capitalist and manufacturer of Spray, Rockingham county, has been chosen by the executive committee of the North Carolina Agricultural Society as chief marshal for the great State Fair to be held in his city from October 16th to 21st. Mr. Mebane yesterday notified Secretary Joseph E. Pogue of his acceptance of this position.

—Raleigh News and Observer, August 9th: His friends throughout the State will be sorry to learn that Governor Glenn is sick, and they will hope that his indisposition will not continue long. His office work before the encampment crowded him into working from 8:00 and 8:30 o'clock in the morning till after 9:00 in the evening, and together with preparing papers and speeches his labor fatigued him.

—Isaiah Wilkes, a colored man, was put in jail at Kinston on Tuesday to await his trial at the Superior court on the serious charge of burglary. The charge was preferred to a colored woman, who says that about 11 o'clock Sunday night a man broke into her house and stole eighty cents from a snuff box. She described Wilkes to the police and he was arrested and when brought into court the woman identified him.

—At Barnardsville, in the Big Ivy section of Buncombe county, Monday morning at 3 o'clock, C. C. Greenwood made a murderous attack on his wife, fiendishly stabbing her in four places in the back. It is believed that she will die. He left her for dead and made his escape. Greenwood is forty-six years of age. Mrs. Greenwood is his second wife. His first wife came near meeting such a fate at the hands of her husband and only saved herself from his attack with a razor by jumping through a window and seeking refuge at the home of a near by neighbor.

—Monday's Charlotte Observer: Senator F. M. Simmons is coming in for his share of the cursing these days. There are men who believe that he is leading the Democratic party to a fall. The opposition to his policy is growing every day now as the election of 1905 approaches. Some men who were his friends and allies six years ago would defeat him now, and the number increases. A gentleman of influence and standing in his community, while in Charlotte some time ago, asked an Observer man this question: "What are the Democrats of the State going to do? Will they continue to follow the lead of Simmons and go to certain defeat and see their party disrupted or will they turn him down?" The man who made that speech is all right and regular, for he went as a delegate to the last national convention and is at present a member of the State executive committee and one who opposed the calling of the committee to question Mr. Simmons' right to do certain things during the meeting of the last Legislature. His Democracy has not been challenged, and would not be if his name were given.

—Raleigh News and Observer, August 9th: Last Saturday The News and Observer announced the completion of the bond of Claude Bernard and the impending return of that six weeks' fugitive to the city. Yesterday Bernard got into town quietly, coming on the 11:40 train from Hamlet going North. That train is as a rule patronized only by through passengers, since there is an earlier train arriving from Hamlet. Bernard chose for his entry the later train and thus escaped general observation. Immediately on his arrival Bernard walked up to the Jones Building and was standing on the porch just outside the office of his friend Hill E. King when he was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Walters. He at once tendered his bond which was accepted, his sureties being John Nichols, H. E. King, T. F. Blockwell, all of Wake, and A. E. Lackey, of Richmond county. Lackey is the rich Hamlet distiller and one of those with whom Bernard is said to have been interested in the whiskey business. Mr. Lackey stated that he was worth $100,000 over and above debts and personal property exemptions and Mr. King justified for $10,000. There was a rumor later in the afternoon that there would be compromise of the suit against Bernard for damages, but this could not be confirmed. The sensational events leading to the exile of Bernard and the proceeding in arrest and bail in connection with an action for $20,000 damages by H. C. Howell for the seduction of his daughter are well remembered.

—At Kernsville, about 1:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, Ade Walker shot and killed Eugene Lamar, a married man about 35 years old. The two men were in the blacksmith shop of Granville Manuels, near the Southern Railway depot, when the crime was committed. Walker was found an hour later at his home half a mile away, and arrested. At the preliminary trial Mr. Manuels, owner of the blacksmith shop and the only eye witness to the shooting, testified that Lamar and Walker were drinking and that when the two men came into the shop Walker asked Lamar to play another game of cards with him. The witness gathered from conversation that Lamar won $1.50 from Walker, in the game played that morning. Lamar said to walker: "You are too drunk, Abe, besides you are fussy when drinking; wait till you sober up and I will play with you again." "Damn it, lets shoot it out then," exclaimed Walker. Lamar replied, laughing: "All right then." Walker drew his postol and fired twice. Lamar drew his gun and began shooting, emptying his pistol. At this junction the owner of the blacksmith shop decided that he was in dangerous territory, and he ran out in search of an officer. Lamar was shot three time. One of the balls fired by Lamar went through Walker's left leg, just above the knee, another went through the coat and another grazed his right ankle. Walker was ordered to jail without bail until the next term of court. He was brought to Winston-Salem Tuesday night. Walker is known as a dangerous character when drinking. He killed a man in Winston-Salem a few years ago, but was released on the plea of self-defense. He also killed a negro a number of years ago. About four years ago he pulled down a deputy sheriff, R. C. Hunter, of Kernersville, with a shot gun, peppering him in the face and breast. Walker claimed that he did it just for fun, though he admitted that he resisted arrest and told the officer to move on. Walker served a term on the road for the latter offense.

REFORM IN RUSSIA AT LAST.

To Issue Proclamation for Representation by People in Government.

By Cable to The Morning Star.

St. Petersburg, August 8.—The Russian national assembly, the first gathering together of the representatives of the Muscovite people since Emperor Alexei Michaelovitch, the second of the Romanoffs, summoned the last Zemsky Sobor in the seventeenth century will be proclaimed on Saturday next.

The final session of the special commission which has been considering the project as drafted by Minister of the Interior Bouligin and elaborated by the council of ministers was held at Peterhoft today. Its verdict upon the project as a whole was favorable and at the conclusion of the session, between the assembled grand dukes, ministers, senators and other members of the commission Emperor Nicholas set the seal of his approval thereto.

In principle the national assembly will be a deliberative and consultative body for the discussion of measures laid before it by the Emperor or his ministers. It will have the power to force the withdrawal of ministerial propositions by a two-thirds vote which gives it at least a negative control over legislation. It will be a large body, probably of over 500 members chosen by a system of indirect elections, and the first session, it is understood will be held in November. The elections will take place in October.

H. W. Bagg, merchant and furniture manufacturer, of Second and Market streets, residing at 114 North Sixth street, says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they proved to be a grand medicine, and I can also say that Doan's Ointment is the best remedy of the kind on the face of the earth. I suffered with my back for a long time. When I sat at my desk for a while and attempted to get up I would have to catch hold of the chair for support and straighten myself up gradually. The kidney secretions were dark colored and full of sediment. I read about Doan's Kidney Pills in our papers and went to R. R. Bellamy's drug store and got a box. Since using them my back is strong and I can move about and stand up as straight as ever and the kidney secretions have all cleared up. You may use my name as an endorser of the claims made for Doan's Kidney Pills and also Doan's Ointment which I used with good results."

The Morning Star.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

Thursday Morning August 10.

VIRGINIA REPUBLICANS NAME FULL TICKET

Judge Lewis, of Richmond, Named for Governor — Roosevelt's Administration Endorsed.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Roanoke, Va., August 9.—When the Republican State convention reassembled today the resolutions committee brought in the platform which was read and adopted as a whole amid rousing applause. It endorses the national Republican platform, especially sound currency, protective tariff, expansion, the Monroe Doctrine, the Panama Canal and a larger navy. It indorses President Roosevelt's administration and his "determination to give every one a quare deal." It deplores the unimportant part being played by Virginia in the national movement towards prosperity in national business.

It leaves the liquor traffic question to each community to settle in its own way. It denounces the Democratic State constitution of 1902, declares for higher education and free school books in public schools, pledges the party to clean elections and an honest count of the ballots under unqualified returns, declares for a non-partisan judiciary, denounces all graft in public office and recommends the turning out of office of all wrong doers.

After the platform was adopted a new plan or organization of the party was read and adopted. I. T. Bascom Slemp of the Ninth district was re-elected State Chairman by acclamation.

Nominations for governor were then in order. United States District Attorney Thomas L. Moore, of Christianburg, put in nomination Judge L. L. Lewis, of Richmond. Among the ten speeches seconding the nomination of Judge Lewis was one by W. H. C. Brown, a negro, of Newport News, a Harvard graduate, whose address was frequently and liberally applauded. After Judge Lewis had been declared nominated, the following nominations then came in the order given:

Lieutenant-Governor—W. P. Kent, of Wytheville.

Attorney General—George A. Rivercomb, of Allegheny.

Treasurer—John Acker, of Rockingham.

Superintendent of Public Instruction—J. N. Harman, of Tazewell.

Commissioner of Agriculture—W. H. Eggburn, of Culpepper.

Secretary of the Commonwealth—V. M. Sowden, of Floyd.

All of these nominations were made without opposition and the convention adjourned sine die.

WARM WIRELETS.

At Houston, Texas, yesterday State Health Officer Tabor so far raised the quarantine against Shreveport as to permit of the operation of freight trains. No passenger trains will be run for the present.

Reports that there have been three deaths from yellow fever at the detention camp at Shreveport are untrue. There have been three cases of fever in the detention camp; one man died and the other two have recovered.

Thousands of people attended the reception given to Secretary Taft, Miss Alice Roosevelt and the other members of their party by the Army and Navy Club in Manila last night. In the afternoon the tobacco planters were given a hearing, Senator Scott, of West Virginia, acting as chairman of the meeting.

President Roosevelt will leave Oyster Bay this morning on what probably will be the last trip he will make during his Summer sojourn at Sagamore Hill. Late this afternoon he will deliver an address to the United Mine Workers and members of the Catholic total abstinence Union at Wilkesbarre, Pa., and on Friday he will speak before the Chataqua Assembly at Chataqua, N. Y.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Cleveland, O., August 9.—The World-News today says:

At conferences now taking place at Forest Hill between John D. Rockefeller and President William R. Harper, of Chicago University, plans are being formulated for the further endowment of that educational institution by Mr. Rockefeller. The visit of the Harpers to the home of Mr. Rockefeller is said to be one of a social nature but it is known that plans involving the outlay of $50,000,000 are under consideration by Mr. Rockefeller, who designs to make the University of Chicago the greatest seat of learning in the world.

FEVER RECORD AT NEW ORLEANS

Archbishop Chappelle Died Yesterday After Scientific Treatment by Experts

CASES NOW NUMBER 679

Seven Deaths Yesterday, Making Total of 119—Cases Under Treatment, 265—There Are Now 130 Infested Localities.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

New Orleans, August 9.—Report of the Board of Health to 6 P. M.:

New cases, 63.
Total cases to date, 679.
Deaths, 7.
Total deaths to date, 119.
Sub foci (new), 12.
Total sub-foci to date, 130.
Cases under treatment, 265.

The first day since the fever appeared here in which there was any apparent depression in the community was to-day and there were two reasons for it. One was the death of Archbishop Chapelle, who succumbed to an attack of the prevailing illness and the other was the general closing of stores in accordance with the Mayor's proclamation urging everybody in the city to devote the day to a general home cleaning up. While the death of the distinguished prelate is deplored because of the loss which the community sustains, it is also regretted because of the effect it will have upon the outside world. It is feared that it will cause the belief to spread that conditions here are really much worse than they are. The records are now being issued under the auspices of the Marine Hospital service which vouches for the correctness.

Quite a number of the new cases are in close proximity to sub-foci, indicating secondary infection. The new sub-foci are evenly divided, six being above and six below Canal street. One is in a hospital and the patient is a well known citizen. In the death list all but fifteen names indicate foreign origin showing no variation from the preceeding records.

Surgeon White took active control of the whole local situation to-day and opened a new set of offices in the Louisian National Bank building, which had been placed at his disposal by the bank. He inspected the Emergency Hospital and took formal charge, retaining the present staff. Three of the officers assigned arrived to-day Surgeon Blue and Assistant Surgeons F. C. Smith and E. M. Steger. Several others will be here to-morrow. Dr. Paul M. Gessner, a local physician, has been placed in immediate charge of the sanitation work with five assistants.

Chairman Janvier received a telegram from Governor Blanchard to-bay stating that more than a majroity of the members of the Legislature had replied favoring the appropriation of $100,000 to the fever fund. so the loan will be effected with the financial agents to-morrow. The city's contribution of $50,000 will be available in a day or two. In the meantim the citizens are coming froward and the fund will be completed in a short time.

News outside of the city shows that there are only two new cases at Patterson and one case in a new locality in St. Charles parish. Surgeon Guiteras will return to Patterson to-morrow morning. Assistant Surgeon Corput will go to St. Charles parish in the morning to make a general round up. Dr. Brady is also going on behalf of the State Board of Health.

Another of the Italians at Bon Ami in Calcasieu parish died to-day. Dr. George H. Tichorno and two nurses were sent there to-day on a special train. The State Board will to-morrow send Dr. T. R. Rudolph and several nursese and supplies to Patterson.

Public interest in the general yellow fever situation suffered a temporary eclipse to-day in the death of Archbishop Chapelle, the most distinguished victim of the present scourge. Although the prelate was a subject of scientific treatment and attention, his physique and fatigued condition on his return from a particularly irksome trip through the country counted against him. His death, while generally deplored, is not taken as a refutation of the medical fraternity's opinion that with good care and proper treatment, the number of deaths is not likely to be large in proportion to the number of cases.

What is held remarkable is that the Archbishop should have contracted the disease so quickly, whereas he had spent many years in Cuba and Porto Rico, where the disease is endemic, without having contracted it there. Among the scientific men there is little doubt that the Archbishop fell a victim to a mosquito during a visit he had paid to the old archishopric on Charles street or from an insect which found its way into his residence in Esplanade avenue, which is not far from the territory within which there has been infection.

To-day's record of new cases is larger and there was a slight increase in the number of deaths. The daily number of new cases is swelling largely because Federal control has overcome the disinclination of doctors to make known their cases.

Surgeon White returned to-day from Slidell and went to the originally infected region to survey conditions. He also visited the Emergency Hospital which was taken over to-day by the Marine Hospital forces.

Actual control of sanitary work today passed to the Marine Hospital Service and Dr. Gessner was placed in charge.

Advices from Mississippi indicate that the people of the rural regions are growing restless under the severity of the quarantines which have cut off supplies. Secretary Hunter, of the Mississippi Board of Health, announces himself as utterly opposed to the shotgun quarantines and throughout Mississippi a saner spirit is manifesting itself since the Federal government has taken charge of the situation.

Among the cases in the last official report is one within half a square of newspaper row, in a lodging house in Commercial Alley. This is the second case that has been reported from the same quarter.

A great street cleaning campaign was inaugurated here early to-day and continued until night fall. Besides the paid laborers of the city and the prisoners from the jail and houses of detention, thousands of volunteers went to work to give New Orleans a thorough scrubbing. Hundreds of carts and wagons were employed in carrying off refuse.

The State Board of Health was in receipts of advices from a number of parishes to-day notifying it of their disposition to modify quarantine regulations. A number of boards met at LaFayette and decided not to interfere with the movement of passengers from non-infected points and infected points, if they have served time in detention camps and been released by the Marine Hospital service. Restrictions were taken off freight provided it is shipped in fumigated cars. Additional appeals have come from the smaller towns for relief so that they may obtain food supplies and ice. Gueydam, La., and Loganport, La., are among the towns thus complaining. The latter is on the Texas border and because of the Texas quarantine has not had a train for seven days. Its supplies are nearly exhausted.

All foreign immigration into New Orleans is to be stopped until after the fever is stamped out. Large numbers of Italian immigrants were expected here in September and October, but as the bringing in of thousands of unacclimated persons would be to supply fresh material for the fever the immigration bureau will arrange for the diversion of the ships to other ports, unless by that time there is no longer a trace of the disease here.

Archbishop Chappelle.

New Orleans, August 9.—A sudden change in his condition to-day speedily culminated in the death of Archbishop P. L. Chappelle, of the Diocese of Louisiana. Mgr. Chappelle was taken ill on Friday. He had returned to the city three days before, having just completed a tour of Louisiana, and announced on his arrival his intention of co-operating in the efforts then in full swing to stamp out the fever. The Archbishop, however, left his house only on one occasion before he was taken sick. That was to take a drive with his niece. The disease made steady inroads and yesterday he was found to be in a critical condition. When Dr. Larue saw him to-day the patient showed increased weakness. Before noon there was an alarming change for the worst. The physicians were immediately summoned for consultation, but the Archbishop was beyond succor. The end came with great rapidity, dissolution ensuing at 12:50 P. M.

While Archbishop Chappelle held a pastorate in Washington he formed friendships with men of prominence in national affairs, among them William McKinley. While Apostolic Delegate to the Philippines, the Archbishop spent much time in the settlement of conditions growing out of the change of sovereignty in the islands. Three years ago Archbishop Chappelle was relieved of the responsibility of his mission to the Philippines, but continued his jurisdiction over Cuba and Porto Rico. He made frequent visits to both islands and was constantly in touch with all the work of his vast diocese. During his stay in New Orleans he has lived with his niece, Miss Soulignac, and they have been inseparable companions. The Archbishop was a man of ability and intellectual attainments. He was fond of social life and was a constant entertainer, drawing to his home the most representative people in the social and intellectual life of New Orleans.

DEATH LIST WAS THIRTEEN.

Remarkable Escape of 100 Employes in Collapse of Albany Store.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Albany, N. Y., August 9.—The collapse of the John G. Myers Company department store yesterday which resulted in the death of 13 persons and the probable fatal injury of two others, will be investigated by a special commission. This afternoon when the searchers announced their belief that no more bodies were in the ruins, Mayor Gaus called a meeting of the heads of city departments and decided to appoint three non-residents to require into the cause of the disaster and report where to place the blame.

The discovery that the thirteen bodies already taken out will account probably for all the victims of the accident is a surprise to Albanians, who until this afternoon expected that at least a dozen more mangled forms were buried beneath the ruins.

The small number of deaths, small when it is considered that nearly 100 persons went down with the wreck, is accounted for by the fact that scarcely any of the brick walls fell and the debris consisted mostly of wooden timbers and plaster, with only an occasional iron girder. One of these iron beams crushed the life out of four young girls.

THE WILL EXUM CASE.

Governor Being Urged to Commute Death Sentence at Kinston.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., August 9.—Governor Glenn devoted three hours to-day to hearing argument pro and con on the question of the element of premeditation in the killing of Guy Walston by his father-in-law, Will Exum, at Kinston, in 1901, Exum being under sentence to be hanged at Kinston September 20th. The Governor is being urged to commute the sentence to life imprisonment and says he will not unless it can be shown there was no premeditation in the killing in which case it would be murder in the second degree. Ex-Governor Aycock spoke in behalf of the prisoner and Mr. Wooten, of Wooten & Wooten, of Kinston, in opposition to commutation. With counsel were a number of citizens for and against commutation, among the former being the brother of the condemned man and in the latter two brothers of the murdered man.

GEORGIAN KILLED BY HIS WIFE.

Was Mistaken for a Burglar and Shot Twice.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Royston, Ga., August 9.—Ex-Senator and County School Commission W. H. Cobb, of this place, was fatally shot last night by his wife for a burglar. He was unconscious until his death at 1:30 o'clock this morning. Mr. Cobb was shot twice, one shot taking effect in the head, the other shot taking effect in the abdomen.

PEACE ENVOYS AT PORTSMOUTH

Preliminary Meeting of Russian and Japanese Plenipotentiaries Held Yesterday

USE ENGLISH AND FRENCH

Meeting Was Informal But Regular Conference Will Begin To-day Pessimistic Feling That Russia Will Reject Japs Terms.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Portsmouth, N. H., August 9.—With the probability that Baron Komura will tomorrow reveal to the Russian plenipotentiaries the terms upon which Japan is willing to conclude peace, opinion as to the outcome among those who are congregated here to watch the proceedings has become decidedly pessimistic. This is due to the growing conviction that Japan's conditions will not prove as moderate as were at one time anticipated and especially in the matter of indemnity, may preclude the possibility of their acceptance by the Russian envoys as a basis of negotiation.

The firm attitude of M. Witte in private conversation against the payment of an indemnity and the misistent reports enmanating from Japanese quarters that a stiff war contribution approximately the cost of the war, variously stated at from $600,000,000 to $800,000,000 constitutes one of Japan's demands, indicates a wide, if not, an irreconcilable difference between Japan's irreducible minimum and what Russia is prepared to accept. Upon the question of the payment of a large indemnity the instructions of the Russian plenipotentiaries are believed to admit of no concessions although it is possible a certain compensation in kind might be arranged. For instance, it is suggested that for the relinquishment of the island of Sakahlin now potentially in Japan's hands, the possession of which by Japan would give her command of the whole Siberian litteral, Russia could with propriety pay a large sum.

Gloomy forebodings, however, may be permature at this juncture, as everything indicates that both sides are sincerely desirous of concluding a treaty of peace.

The first meeting of the plenipotentiaries today was of an entirely informal character, so informal in fact that Baron Komura did not bring his letter of credence to the Portsmouth navyyard, whereas Mr. Witte was armed with the original document in Russian setting forth the powers conferred upon him, and also with a translation of the document. The latter he read. Baron Komura was embarrassed and offered to send back to the hotel for his commission, but Mr. Witte expressed his faith that the credentials were full and ample, and it was arranged that official exchange of credentials should be made tomorrow.

Later in the afternoon, however, copies of the credentials were informally exchanged in order that they might be examined before the meeting tomorrow. It is known that the credentials differ slightly. In exactly what respect could not be ascertained tonight but the Associated Press correspondent is assured both by the Japanese and Russian emissaries that the difference is not essential and constitutes no obstacle to the official opening of the negotiations. Indeed the President was officially informed tonight that the credentials were full, ample and satisfactory to both sides.

It was decided today to hold two daily sessions, one in the morning beginning at 9:30 and one in the afternoon beginning at 3 P. M. To avoid delay and give thme penipotentiaries and delegates time for consultation between sessions, it has been arranged that luncheon will be served at the navyyard and the envoys upon leaving their quarters in the morning will not return until the afternoon session adjourns.

Three secretaries for each side will be in attendance to draw up the protocols of the meetings which will be written in both English and French.

The French text, however, in case of dispute, will be accepted in evidence (faire foi). The officials versions of today's meeting given out by each side described it as "satisfactory" and other accounts indicate that while everything passed off amicably considerable reserve was displayed upon both sides. Baron Komura, whom Mr. Witte had met in St. Petersburg during the former's service as Japanese minister there, was pleasantly greeted by the Russian chief envoy in French, but the Baron was obliged to shake his head and turn to his Secretary, Mr. Hond, who explained that Baron Komura had forgotten the little French he knew while in St. Petersburg.

While the Russian plenipotentiaries expect the Japanese to present the Japanese terms immediately upon the official exchange of credentials tomorrow, they admit they are in the dark. Baron Komura and his colleagues decline to give any intimation of their course of procedure.

Pursuing the tatics which they have constantly followed in all their diplomatic and military operations they are carefully guarding all their plans regarding the present meeting.

There was some disposition today to attribute Baron Komura's forgetfulness in not bringing his credentials to the meeting a desire to spar for time and for that reason some doubt was expressed whether the Japanese would show their hand tomorrow, but the Russian envoys do not question Baron Komura's good faith and frankly say it was due to a misunderstanding.

This evening the amenities were observed by a general exchange of cards, Mr. Witte, Baron Rosen and his suite sending theirs through the hotel office, while cards of the Japanese mission were left at the doors of the members of the Russian mission by a little Japanese messenger boy.

Commanders Winslow and Gibbons also made their official calls upon the two missions late this afternoon. The Japanese and the Russian newspaper correspondent have broken the ice and have begun to fraternize. It is perhaps significant that the correspondents on both sides are sending to their respective homes dispatches of anything but an optimistic character.

Because the Russians like to smoke while at the table, the entire Russian mission tonight dined in their apartments, a practice which they have decided to continue hereafter.

Portsmouth, N. H., August 9.—The Russian plenipotentiaries, through Mr. Nabokoff who asisted at today's first meeting as secretary, issued the following official statement:

"The first meeting took place this morning. Mr. Witte, Baron de Rosen, Baron Komura, Mr. Takahira and a secretary on each side participated. The programme of the following meetings has been fixed so far as the form is concerned: The meetings will be twice a day, in the morning and in the afternoon, after three. The information will be given to the press after being agreed upon by both sides. The records of the proceedings and all of the documents will be compiled both in English and in French. The French text (Fera Foi) will be accepted in evidence in case of dispute. The delegates attached to the plenipotentiaries who did not assist at this morning's meeting and will not assist tomorrow will in the future be asked to take part in the conference only when the two parties shall judge it necessary to have their opinion on some subjects before the meeting."

On behalf of Baron Komura and Mr Takahira, Mr. Sato handed the following official statement to the Associated Press:

"Today's meeting was informal for the purpose of settling the method of procedure and in that meeting it was decided that formal meetings will commence tomorrow morning at half past nine. Meetings will be held twice a day, one from 9:30 to 12:30 and the other from 3 to 5:30 or 6 o'clock in the afternoon, subject to modifications as may be agreed upon later. No serious business was transacted at this morning's session."

FORMER MINISTER WU ON CHINESE BOYCOTT

Talks Frankly About Indignities to Better Class of Chinese—Demands Emigration to Philippines.

By Cable to The Morning Star.

Pekin, August 9.—Wu Ting Fang, former Chinese minister at Washington and now vice president of the Board of Foreign Affairs, interviewed by the Associated Perss today, said that the existing regulations for the exclusion of Chinese from the United States were unsatisfactory from the Chinese standpoint and hence it was desired that they should be modified by the new convention. The Chinese, he said, agreed to the exclusion of coolies and this point presented no difficulties, but the existing regulations pressed with severity on other classes.

"A superior Chinaman arriving in San Francisco, for example," said Mr. Wu, "is detained by the authorities while his credentials are being examined, and this detention frequently involves consorting with a low class of coolies in a common shed. He is unable to communicate with friends and is subjected to inconveniences and indignities to which Americans would refuse to submit. Moreover he is not allowed to retain the services of any to protect his interests, and if the immigration authorities decide against him there is no possiblity of appeal. That these grievances are well founded is demonstrated by the necessity for President Roosevelt's stringent order that courtesy be shown the Chinese by the immigration officials under pain of dismissal."

The Chinese government, he said, agreed to the exclusion of coolies but it urged as the main points of the new convention that the better classes of Chinese be treated on an equal footing with other aliens, with the right to retain counsel and the right of appeal if necessary, and the admission of coolies to Hawaii, which he regarded as of the utmost importance. Hawaii was greatly in need of laborers, Mr. Wu said, and since the Chinese were excluded the industries of the islands had suffered. At all events, the Chinese there could not compete with American labor. The Philippines had long been a natural field for Chinese industry, but the application of the exclusion act to the islands had changed this.

Mr. Wu expressed himself as greatly regretting the Chinese boycott of American goods and steamship and insurance companies, as it might estrange the good will of Americans, which he highly prized.

WOMEN CREATE BREAD FAMINE

To Aid Strikers They Throw Bread Into Gutters.

By Wire to The Morning Star

New York, August 9.—Women in the strike operations of the Kosher bread bakers are producing a bread famine in the Hebrew quarters of New York and Brooklyn. Hundreds of loaves of this bread were taken by women from the peddlers who attempted to sell them and throw into the gutters where the mud caused by recent rains instantly ruined the foodstuff.

There was a riotous demonstration in the front of a delicatessen store in Clinton street early today when a gang of young roughs discovered cthat the store was offering Kosher bread for sale. They rushed into the store, seized the bread and threw it into the street.

Two policemen were injured today in a bread riot which occurred in the basement of a Hebrew bakery in Ellen street. Two hundred men entered the shop, and overpowering the policeman who guarded it, carried out barrels of dough which were ready for the baking and emptied it into the gutter. Several barrels of flour also were emptied into the street. Extra police were called out to disperse the mob.

AWFUL STORY OF STARVATION.

Pitiable Condition of Thirteen Sailors Taken From British Steamer.

By Wire to The Morning Star

Chester, Pa., August 9.—Thirteen Scottish sailors taken from the fever stricken British steamship Barnton, and now is in the Chester Hospital, tell a horrible tale of suffering. They say that stores could not be procured in the foreign ports and when they were at sea all the meat became unfit to eat, but they either had to accept it or starve. The men said, however, that Captain MacGregor was not to blame for the condition of the food, which spoiled after the vessel had left shore. After the men entered the Chester Hospital they began to rave for food, and insisted on being given a full meal. The doctors found that the worst of their sufferings consisted in being nearly starved to death. The patients are all doing well. They are fed every three hours, their diet comprising milk, soft boiled eggs, cereals and broth. They eat ravenously always calling for more.
